Bellwork
YN: "The Road Not Taken" poem
I can: read a document, and write about connection

1. READ
"The Road Not Taken" (Frost 1916)

2. WRITE
15 minutes to WRITE about a time you "took a road less travelled by" that "made all the difference" (line 19-20)

Ask me to explain if you REALLY do not understand #2

YN: TPCASTT for poetry analysis document, highlighter

I can: identify elements in poetry to help with comprehension

Decoding: TPCASTT

Claim: I hate reading poems because I do not understand them.

Response: Break them

Annotate this document…I think, you do not know "connotation", "diction", "paradox".

Station 2

Written Reflection: Revise your bellwork

- I should see text drops

- I should see a claim:

ex: "I am a person who "travels the road less taken", and this is hard…

- I should see examples

- I should see a resolution—some reflection of the

intro

January Reading Project

YN: your novel

I can: critically evaluate an author's techniques

Write responses to these questions about your partner novel:

- What is the main conflict of the story?
- What is the setting of the story? …
- What is the 'inciting' incident?
- Describe the main character of the story.
- Describe one minor character from the story.
- Who is the antagonist (villain) of the story?
- What is the narrative voice? (1st/2nd/3rd)
- Does the narrative voice interest you?
- Why? How?
